HOW TO CLAIM YOUR CREDITS

Gather Your Documents

Collect what you need to file, such as your W-2s, 1099s, photo ID, and Social Security card or ITIN. Having these ready helps your appointment go smoothly.

Book a Free Appointment

Visit FILE4FREE.ORG to schedule your free tax appointment. In-person and virtual options available.

Meet With a Preparer

IRS-certified preparers will review your information, prepare your tax return, and e-file it for you — completely free.

Maximize Your Refund

We help make sure you claim all eligible credits and deductions, so you can keep more money in your pocket.

MAJOR TAX CREDITS

EITC

A refundable federal tax credit for low- to moderate-income workers and families that can provide up to approximately $8,046, depending on income, filing status, and number of qualifying children.

CALEITC

A refundable California tax credit for low-income workers that can provide up to approximately $3,756 to eligible workers and families even if you owe no state tax.

(Y)CTC

Families may qualify for up to $2,200 per child (up to $1,700 refundable) via federal credits plus up to $1,189 from California's Young Child Tax Credit.

FYTC

A refundable California tax credit of up to approximately $1,189 for eligible current or former foster youth to support financial stability during early adulthood.

Millions go unclaimed each year.
Don't leave money on the table.

ITIN FILERS QUALIFY

What is an ITIN?

An ITIN is a tax number for people who need to file taxes but don't qualify for a Social Security number.

What's Needed to Apply

A completed tax return and original or certified proof of identity and foreign status, such as a passport or other IRS-approved documents.

We Can Help

We assist with ITIN applications and renewals as part of our free service.

 If you have any questions or concerns about how applying for an Individual Tax Identification Number (ITIN) or how filing a tax return with an ITIN could impact your individual immigration status or case, please talk to an immigration attorney before you submit your ITIN application or tax return.*
